NARRATIVE:

Anthony Almeida is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include buying a handgun without ID mark, assault with a deadly weapon, robbery, felon in possession of a firearm, trespassing, receiving known stolen property, violation of parole, false ID to a peace officer, vehicle theft, petty theft with prior convictions and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 4 year term for assault with a deadly weapon. Almeida was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 29, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Almeida qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with prior convictions is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
